Pull out the Christmas sweaters and grab the cheese-cake!

It’s been a rough couple of years but, finally, the “Girls” are back for the Holidays. Continuing San Francisco’s beloved holiday tradition, The Golden Girls Live: The Christmas Episodes returns to the Victoria Theatre.

Bringing you two brand new episodes. For Golden Girls aficionados and those in the know, the two episodes being performed this year are “Henny Penny-Straight, No Chaser” (Season 6, Episode 26), and, “An Illegitimate Concern” (Season 5, Episode 18).

By now, the Bay Area knows our show as it’s favorite fun for the whole family Yuletide season must-see, as the show is now in it’s fifteenth season. For the uninitiated, the premise is simple. Take four talented drag performers, cast them in two Xmas parodies, based on actual episodes of the uproarious TV show: THE GOLDEN GIRLS, and you have the perfect holiday event. In what has become a yearly tradition, this drag send-up and loving tribute to the characters the entire world has come to know and love, features San Francisco drag stars: Heklina (Dorothy), Matthew Martin (Blanche), D’Arcy Drollinger (Rose), and Holotta Tymes (Sophia) .

The SF Golden Girls want our audiences, and performers, happy and healthy for the Holidays. Proof of vaccination will be required for entry to the shows.

We are so thrilled to be back. Thank you for being a friend!
